in the Jäger Allee in Potsdam there was a conference between Dr. Kolzenburg, Heilmann of the National Democratic Party, a Russian civilian, and a German speaking with a Baltic accent who called himself Wingert. The discussion centered on a list of SED MCrepresentatives in the Brandenburg Landtag who might be considered likely candidates for the National Democratic Party after having resigned from the SED. In this way the WDP would obtain representation in the Lendtag without the Company of the Landtag without the Company of the Comp tion in the Landtag without the formalities of standing for election. It has not been determined what names were on this list.

- The Brandenburg Minister-Präsident, Dr. Karl Steinhoff, had protested some days previously to the NDP Headquarters with regard to the above tactics. Kolzenburg remarked at this meeting Steinhoff would run into volitical difficulties because of his stand on this matter. 25X1X
- A late comer to the above conference was one Dr. Schulze, attorney general from Güstrow, and member of the Free Germany Committee.
